Forestry Club
University of Arkansas at Monticello
Monticello, Arkansas 71655

Dear Friends:

The Arkansas Foresters provided the basics for the 22nd annual Association of Southern Forestry Clubs Conclave, but you, the Southern Foresters inserted the sportsmanship, professionalism, over-all cooperation, and a modest sense of pride that made this conclave a success. We thank you for your support and the many praises that were given to us throughout the conclave.

We hope you will remember your trip to Arkansas as one of making new acquaintances, an exchange of opinions and ideas, taking home trophies, having fun, and a good feeling inside. We hope you will mark the date, April 4 & 7, 1979 in your minds as the time Arkansas gave it's all to be the perfect host. We enjoyed having you as our guest and look forward to next year's conclave.

Sincerely,

The Arkansas Foresters

UNIVERSITY OF ARKANSAS AT MONTICELLO

From the Conclave Advisor

Dear Friends:

The 22nd A.S.F.C. Conclave is now a matter of history and we at UAM are pleased to be able to look at it as part of the past and not the future. The responsibility of hosting a Conclave is tremendous and cannot be appreciated until your club has had the opportunity. The ingredients for a successful conclave are easy to define but hard to mix in the correct proportions.

It has been a distinct honor and my pleasure to serve as advisor for this Conclave. I accepted this role with some trepidation as to whether we would successfully host an event of this magnitude with the limited facilities available to us in Monticello. We had a few minor problems, such as the mud and having to bus everyone for showers, but overall we considered the Conclave to be a successful one. I would like to accept credit for this success but my effort was slight compared to the effort put forth by the UAM Forestry Club and the cooperation provided by University and local officials.

In reflecting on the Conclave, perhaps the outstanding feature was the spirited competition that developed. The intensity of each participant in every event was at a peak as every club sought to oust the past champion. The competition, while providing the impetus for this gathering of future professionals, is secondary to the exchange of ideas and the bonds of friendship and cooperation that develop between individual participants as well as institutions. The true spirit of Conclave lies in this exchange and I am proud to be associated with the type of people who can make a meeting like this a success.

Many of you will never attend another Conclave while others will attend several more. For each of you it is my hope that your visit to Arkansas was a memorable one. I hope you will again have an opportunity to visit UAM. We at UAM would also like to extend an offer to provide assistance to VPI, our host club for the 23rd Conclave. Again, it has been my pleasure to be a part of the 22nd Conclave.

Sincerely,

Michael S. Fountain
Conclave Advisor

A FOREST IS A TRULY WONDROUS THING . . .

. . . . A renewable resource that provides paper, chemicals, packaging — products so necessary to everyday life.

At Union Camp Corporation we're helping to make sure there'll be plenty of trees for all our needs into the 21st century and beyond. We're developing trees that grow faster, straighter and produce more wood fiber. Every year we grow more total wood than the year before and on the same amount of land.

Part of the responsibility for tomorrow's forest is in our hands and we know it. Our aim is to live up to that responsibility.

More Than Trees . . . .

A modern forest products company such as Potlatch is many things. Trees. Equipment. Plants. Capital. But most of all, it's people. A young forester working toward the genetic improvement of the company's half-million acre Arkansas forest. Computer specialists. Salesmen. Equipment operators. Engineers. Working men and women. All involved, in one way or another, with the management and conversion of tree crops into products that people want and need.

People. They're what the American economic system is all about.
