MISSISSIPPI STATE UNIVERSITY

THE SOUTHERN FORESTER

33rd ANNUAL

ASFC CONCLAVE

MISSISSIPPI STATE UNIVERSITY

Lake Tiak O'Khata

April 5-7, 1990

A WORD FROM THE PRESIDENT

The 33rd Annual ASFC Conclave was an enjoyable experience. We hope you enjoyed it as much as we did. The competition and sportsmanship were very admirable by all schools.

Everything went smoothly, with the help of a lot of dedicated people and organizations that committed their time and money. Special thanks are due to faculty, industry, and the Mississippi State Forestry Club. I would also like to say thanks for the cooperation of each forestry school and the assistance they gave us in helping Conclave run smoothly.

Congratulations are due to Arkansas for once again putting forth a tremendous effort and going home "winners". Also congratulations are due to all the individual winners of all events. Mississippi State University was proud to host the 33rd Annual ASFC Conclave and we hope you had a great time.

I would like to say good luck to VPI as they begin preparing for the 34th ASFC Conclave. Good luck to all the shcools throughout the year and through life. May each individual reach the goals he or she has set in the forest of life.

Greg Thompson
ASFC President 1990

"POSSUM"

COMMENTS FROM THE FORESTRY CLUB ADVISOR

Hi Everyone,

The 34th Annual Southern Forestry Clubs' Conclave is almost upon us, and we have finally wrapped up the 33rd. We had a great time at Lake Tlak-O'Khafa but, later, we learned a valuable lesson --- MAKE COPIES!! We cannot in good faith totally blame the computer for the tardiness of this Southern Forester, but it played a major role.

I am real proud of the students who worked so hard to bring it all together. They and I would be the first to admit however that Susan Jordan was the driving force behind whatever success we had. Because of that we are hopeful she will be able to attend this 34th Conclave at Appomattox State Park with us. Virginia Tech has always been excellent hosts, so we look forward to seeing you there.

Arkansas
First Place Winners

The University of Arkansas Forestry Club began the 1989 Fall Semester with a large induction of eighteen new members. We were invited exhibitionist at several surrounding areas forestry festivals which helped prepare us for 1990 Conclave. The Forestry Club pays 100% of its own mileage, food and lodging costs associated with representing Arkansas in the Conclave competition each year. This year our work projects consisted of public and industrial tree planting, collection of research data for forestry department and the sale of Christmas trees.

We began the 1990 Spring Semester by practicing conclave competition events and preparations for our annual Field Day Competition/Banquet which determines who will represent our club at the 1990 Mississippi State Conclave. This was the first time for several of our new members to compete. With this new enthusiasm and inspiration added to the already prevailing spirit of the club, we expect again to place well in this year's Conclave.

We would like to thank Mississippi State and all those who made the 1990 Conclave a success. We would like to especially thank the support of our Forestry Department, Arkansas Forestry Commission, Georgia-Pacific, and for individual private donations all of whom made our trip to the 1990 Conclave possible.

Georgia

The Georgia Forestry Club has had a very busy year. Club activities included intramural football and softball, work at homecoming, and participation in campus-wide activities designed to introduce students to forestry. We also co-hosted Round Table, which allows forestry students to meet and talk with working professionals in the field of forestry. Fund-raising activities for the year included selling t-shirts, hats, and firewood.

We would like to thank Dean Hargreaves and our faculty advisors for all their help throughout the year, and we would especially like to thank the MSU Forestry Club for a great conclave.

Louisiana State

This has been a great year for the LSU Forestry Club. Our annual fall "smoker" was a huge success and we recruited 10 new members. The money generated from our Christmas tree sale will be enough to fund the club's activities for the entire year! Our "mini-conclave" was held the weekend before the ASFC Conclave. We practiced for several weeks prior to the "mini-conclave" to make the events as competitive as possible.

The Club sponsored a trip for five members to Alexandria, LA for the Louisiana Society of American Foresters Convention. In addition, we joined the Louisiana "adopt a highway" program in an effort to help clean up our public roads and streets. Several members also worked a booth for the School of Forestry, Wildlife, and Fisheries in a recruiting effort for new students. The Club will also sponsor a display at school for Earth Week and Earth Day.

We would like to thank Mississippi State for hosting the 1990 Conclave. Good luck to all the teams and so long from the Festival State.

Louisiana Tech

At year's end last year, the newly elected Forestry Club officers at Louisiana Tech University made several promises. First, to increase club support; second, to only send our best to conclave; and third, to have fun, no matter what. At first their promises were just that - promises; but, by the end of conclave they were reality. We sent to conclave the largest team La. Tech has ever sent (club moral couldn't have been higher). We placed third, that showed that we sent only our best (the overall score was a personal best for Tech. The highest we ever placed was sixth). Even though it rained and rained each of us had the time of our lives (thanks MSU).

We feel we could not have accomplished these things without club support and "Stubborn Bulldog Determination."

We started off the year with our Freshman Bash. We ate Bar-B-Que and made lots of new friends. As the year went on, we had our shotgun raffle and we sold Christmas trees. Proceeds from these fund raisers helped us go to conclave. Our senior gag gifts made our Christmas party a success. We ended our year with our annual End-of-the-Year Crawfish Boil. It ended the best year the Louisiana Tech Forestry Club has ever had. The newly elected officers have made promises that we hope to make come true. We look forward to seeing each of you at VPI. Good luck to VPI on hosting Conclave.

Welcome back Tennessee, we hope to see you at every Conclave in the future.

Thanks once again to Mississippi State for hosting "the best Conclave yet," as quoted from one of our members.

In 1992 Louisiana will host Conclave -- we are already preparing and we hope you are too.

Mississippi State
Sportsmanship Award

We hope everyone enjoyed this conclave. It was a lot of hard work to put the conclave together but after it was all said and done, the MSU Forestry Club really enjoyed it. We were proud of all the schools represented. The best part about Conclave was that Lake Tiak-O'Khata would like to have everyone back next year. That says a lot for all the schools and students who participated.

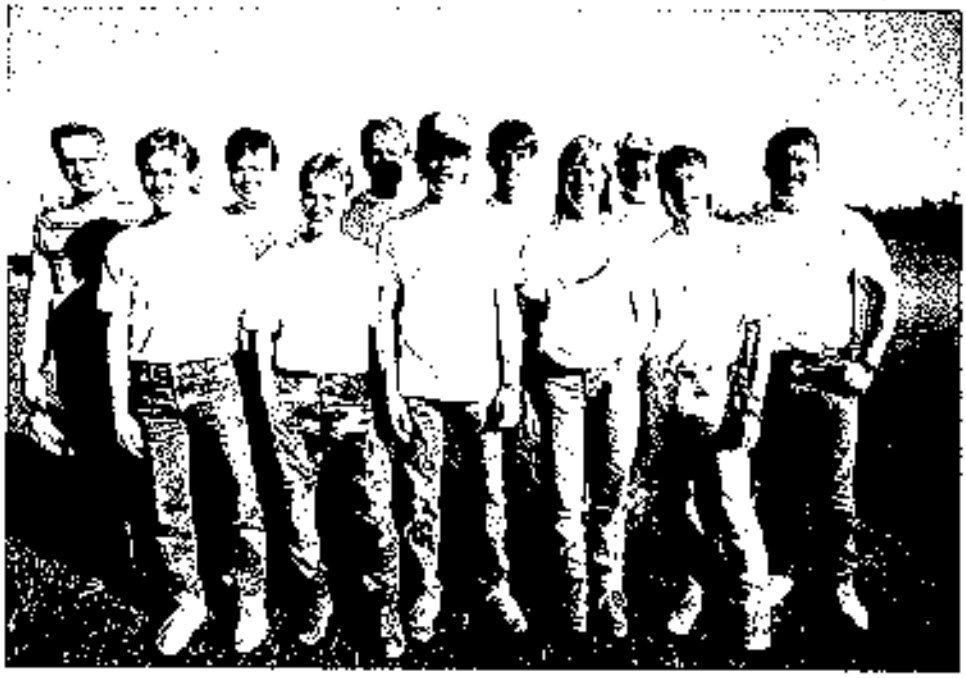

The MSU Forestry Club plans to sell firewood to raise money for our trip to Virginia. We look forward to seeing everyone.

By the way Virginia Tech, MSU Bulldogs don't know SNOW!

North Carolina State

Oklahoma State

With memories of toilet paper still only a couple of years old, the Oklahoma State University Forestry Club worked hard to put together a competitive Conclave team. To help defray transportation costs, the club sold firewood and kindling wood. The club also helped gain publicity for forestry in Oklahoma by participating in Traditions '89, a folklife festival held in downtown Oklahoma City. In addition to hosting the annual faculty-student Christmas banquet, the Cowboy foresters brought a number of natural resource professionals from the local, state and federal levels to campus to speak to club members and other interested students.

The members of the Oklahoma State University Forestry Club would like to thank the students and staff off Mississippi State University for putting together a great conclave. We're looking forward to seeing everybody in Virginia next year.

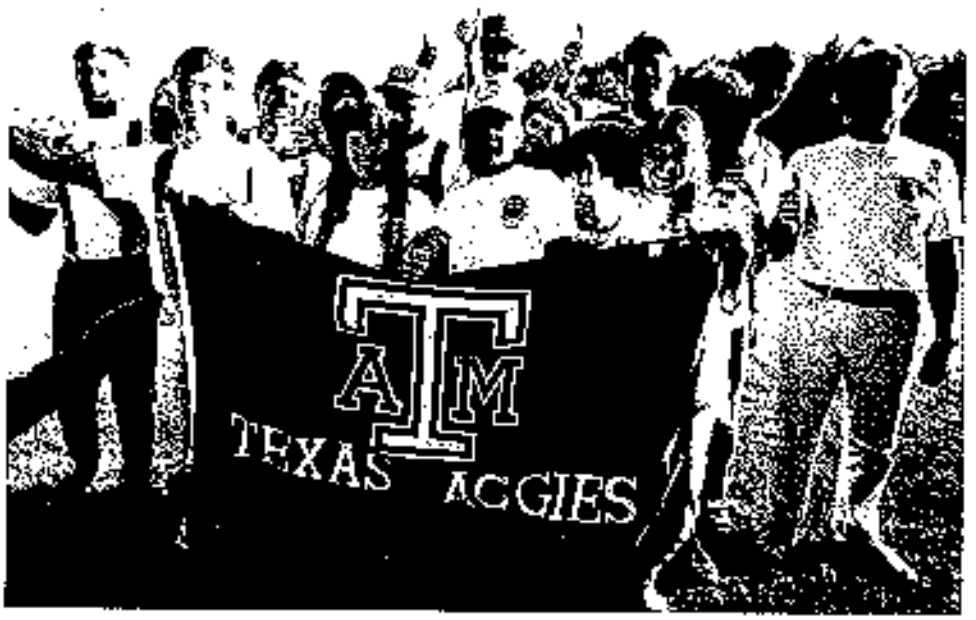

Stephen F. Austin

Tennessee

Texas A & M

The Texas A&M Forestry Club is proud to be a member of the ASFC and proud to be a part of this Conclave. The past year the club has continued its usual fund raising and social activities as well as initiating many community involvement programs -- of which we are very proud. Conclave has always been a major part of our club and will continue to be in the future. Thanks to Mississippi State and we'll see you in Blacksburg. And remember always ..... do it in the woods!"

Virginia Tech

Once again the Virginia Tech Forestry Club had a busy year. Working hard and playing hard as usual, we were successful in selling firewood and Christmas trees -- we made it to Mississippi, somehow! (Next year, you all will know the feeling!) Thanks to MSU for a great conclave and we all look forward to seeing everyone in Virginia next Spring for the 34th Conclave.
